COMMUNION FOR OUR ELDERLY: Elders are planning to serve communion this Sunday, March 29 at Fellowship Village. We will serve our residents in the Nursing Wing at 1:45 PM as a group in the great room ahead of the chapel service. Following that, we will serve our residents in the Apartment Wing at 2:30 PM gathering at the dining table. We trust this will promote the fellowship we have in Christ as we partake of communion together. Members whose loved ones are residents of FV may certainly join us there. In any case, please encourage, perhaps remind, your loved ones to join others in receiving communion together this Sunday afternoon.

PROFESSION OF FAITH: The elders are pleased to announce that Tyson Van Voorst has professed his faith before the elders and expressed his desire to follow Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior. Public Profession of Faith will take place on April 12, during the evening service.
—There is a Bible on the back table. Please take a moment to underline your favorite verse, and sign your name by it. We want to encourage Tyson in his walk of faith.

LOOKING AHEAD — MISSIONS SUNDAY: Please plan to participate on May 3 as Inwood CRC celebrates Missions Sunday. During the service, several missionaries and representatives from ministries supported by our church will briefly share about their work and how God is moving through their efforts. Following the service, tables will be set up in the fellowship hall where missionaries and ministry representatives will share more about their work, answer questions, and connect with the congregation. We encourage everyone to take time to visit with them before the potluck luncheon to follow.

PREPARING FOR MISSIONS SUNDAY: As we look ahead to Missions Sunday on May 3, we will be sharing short videos during the offertory in the weeks leading up to this special day. These videos highlight missionaries and ministries supported by our church, reminding us of the work being done and how God is at work through our giving. Today's video is from Union Gospel Mission. We invite you to prayerfully reflect as you watch and allow these glimpses of ministry to prepare our hearts for Missions Sunday.
